Ref. Proposed Settlement Boundary Alteration SDL-HOR06

Dear Sir

The above alteration affects solely our property and we are in complete agreement that it is a sensible amendment.

Having talked to many of our neighbors it appears that there is some misunderstanding that the new area now enclosed by the settlement boundary is a designated development site. We have tried to reassure them in each case and hope that any worries have been put to rest.

However we would like to bring this to your attention should anyone make negative comments about the alteration on this basis.

Best Regards
