

All these birds and the rare ruby tailed wasp, plus slow worms, field mice and many more animals have been photographed in this area (all these are from local photography posted on our community Facebook page)