Non-Domestic Rates or Business Rates

The rates that are collected by local authorities are the way that those who occupy non-domestic properties contribute towards the cost of local services. Further information about the business rates system, including transitional and other reliefs may be obtained at

Unoccupied Property Rating

Business rates will not be payable in the first three months that a property is empty. This is extended to six months in the case of certain industrial properties. Empty properties with rateable value less than £2,900 and empty listed buildings subject to building

Relief and Exemption

Retail relief - From the 1st of April 2019 there was a 2-year relief scheme to aid the retail sector. Businesses who are eligible will receive a third off of their bill. From the 1st April 2020 this was increased to 100% discount and was expanded to music venues, and cinemas. From the 1st April 2021 a new discount level was applicable, a 100% discount will apply from the 1st April 2021 to the 30th June 2021 then from the 1st July 2021 retail relief will be reduced to a 66.6% discount, certain cap levels apply to the 2021/22 scheme. From the 1st April 2022 Retail, Hospitality and Leisure Business Rates Relief scheme will provide eligible occupied retail hospitality and leisure properties with a 50% relief, up to a cash cap.

The transitional relief scheme was introduced in 2017 to help those ratepayers who were faced with higher bills as a result of the revaluation. The scheme ends on 31st March 2022. As a result a small number of ratepayers would face a jump to their full rates bill from 1st April 2022. At the budget the government therefore announced that it would extend the current transitional relief scheme and the supporting small business scheme for one year to the end of the current revaluation cycle. The scheme will restrict increases in bills to 15% for businesses with small properties (up to and including £20,000 rateable value) and 25% for medium properties (up to and

Small business rate relief may be applicable. Generally if the sole property is shown on the rating list with a rateable value which does not exceed £15,000, the ratepayer will receive a percentage reduction in their rates bill for this property of up to a maximum of 100%. For a property with a rateable value of not more than £12,000, the ratepayer
